

Logan County Junior Fair Goat Ambassador Application

(This application may be typed or printed or information may be submitted on other paper)

Name _____

Address _____

Phone Number _____ (to reach you for interview times)

Parent Names (as you would print or announce) _____

School District _____ Age _____ (as of today) Birthdate _____

Member of : (circle one) 4-H FFA Number of years showing Goats _____

Briefly tell about your experience showing Goats (number of years, awards won, type of project, etc)

School Activities _____

Community Activities, Hobbies, Job Experience, Volunteer Activities, etc. _____

Leadership participation _____

Essay: 100 words (min) -250 words (max) on separate sheet of paper. Include the following: "How 4-H or FFA has made you a better person. What qualities have you gained by showing Goats and participating in 4-H or FFA. What would you do or say to encourage others to participate in 4-H/FFA and show Goats."

Please see list of duties and position requirements attached. Will you have any scheduling difficulties or be unable to fulfill any of the duties/requirements listed? If so which ones: _____

Applicant Signature _____

Parent signature _____

Logan County Goat Ambassador Duties and Responsibilities

Duties: Attend all Goat shows during the Logan County Fair. Assist with Livestock Sale when not selling your own animal. Attend other fair events including the Opening Ceremony, Fair Queen contest (you will be announced at that show) and 4-H and FFA Awards. Other events as available. Examples: Other Livestock shows, Bake Sale, Chili cook-off, Cookie Decorating, etc. Participate in parades and other activities in the County. Support Logan County Jr. Fair at as many events as you can. Visit other County Fairs.

Responsibilities: Remember that you represent the Logan County Jr. Fair and the Goat industry year round, not just at fair time. Be friendly, courteous and support other exhibitors, share responsibilities and have fun! Be seen. You should be able to be at fair at least 75% of the time, representing the Goat Industry, Logan County Junior Fair and Logan County Sr. Fair. Dress appropriately- While representing- you must adhere to sale/show dress code at all times concerning no crop tops, no tube tops, spaghetti straps, no farm names/company names. Use good judgment in length of skirts, types of jeans, shirts and shoes. Members of the Sr. Fair board and Jr. Fair along with members of the Goat committee have the final say as to what is appropriate. Do Not wear your sash or crown during the times you are being judged or selling your animal. Introduce yourself to Fair Secretary, Fair Board President. Have a Great Fair Week. Make Memories!